Special Event Permit Applications

- Vineyard Triathlon; Waban/Alley Park & Town beach – Saturday, August 31, 2019

Jennifer Passafiume explained that she altered the course and everything will be a right turn. She has requested to move it to the Saturday of Labor Day weekend and will be appearing in front of the BoS on January 8, 2019 for their permission. She said that in 2018 they had 250 participants which is down from the 400 in 2017. She would like to offer parking for participants.

Chairman Amy Billings said that they will need to volunteers to make sure all vehicles are tagged and out of the park by the end of the event.

Motion: To grant preliminary approval for the Vineyard Triathlon in Waban/Alley Park and Town Beach on Saturday, August 31, 2019 subject to BoS approval of the date. By: Commissioner Combra. Second: Commissioner Lima. Motion unanimously passed 3-0.

Beach NOI

Commissioner Richie Combra said that he is working on it and will submit it to ConCom in February.

Comments

Amy advised that she would like a “Film Permit” developed and if possible get permits onto the Town website as a form.

She also said that Fullers Energy told them at the Niantic Park Playground Project build day, they said that would provide free solar panels for the shed. She would like to send a letter asking them if they still plan on donating the panels.

Meeting adjourned.
