Members present: Amy Billings, Richard Combra Jr and Antone Lima.

Special Events & Covid-19

- Wind Festival for September 12, 2020 has been cancelled
- MV Marathon rescheduled until September 26, 2020; will hold date pending State guidelines allowing such events
- MV Craft Beer Festival rescheduled for October 3, 2020; will hold date pending State guidelines allowing such events
- Current State guidelines do not allow gatherings of more than 10 people, therefore pINKWELL, Crimson Tide and BITB should be rescheduled until 2021

Commissioner Billings advised that the Health Agent would a Covid-19 plan developed for the parks and beaches areas.

Comments

Commissioner agreed to hire a few people to help with keeping park and beaches clean. They agreed that it would be up to people to police themselves in the parks and beaches.

Commissioners were advised that under the current State guidelines for Covid-19 there cannot be more than 10 (ten) people gathered, therefore the following events cannot happen: Open Market, pINKWELL, Crimson Tide and BITB.

Meeting adjourned.
